I. Definitions and scope

The terms used in this document (the "Employee Privacy Policy") such as Personal Data or Processing have the meaning given to them by the glossary in Section VIII of this Employee Privacy Policy or, failing that, by the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals in relation to the processing of personal data and the free circulation of this data, hereafter "GDPR") or the applicable local data protection legislation, if any.

This Employee Privacy Policy applies to the Processing of the Personal data of the following individuals:

- employees working for AccorInvest Entities, including interns and work-study trainees,
- workers and contractors (only applies in the UK) *;
- candidates for positions within an AccorInvest Entity; and
- former employees of AccorInvest Entities.

For the purposes of this document, these persons are generally referred to as "Employees".

For the avoidance of doubt, this Employee Privacy Policy does not apply to the Personal Data of customers or other data subjects such as suppliers, shareholders or visitors (for which you should refer to the Privacy Policy).

This Employee Privacy Policy covers all AccorInvest Entities' activities, from hotel operations to asset management and support activities.

This Employee Privacy Policy describes how we collect and use your Personal Data during and after your working relationship with us, in accordance with the applicable data protection legislation.

We reserve the right to update this Employee Privacy Policy at any time. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the Processing of your Personal Data.

*For the Processing of the Personal data of workers and contractors, in the other countries than the United Kingdom, please refer to the Privacy Policy

II. Data processing principles

AccorInvest is committed to complying with all the laws and regulations that govern the Processing of Personal Data. Accordingly, AccorInvest undertakes to apply the following principles:

- Data collection for specific purposes - lawfulness of Processing

Personal Data is collected and Processed solely for the purposes and in the contexts described in Section IV of this Employee Privacy Policy.

Any Processing of Personal Data by AccorInvest will have a lawful basis (such as consent, the performance of a contract or legal obligation, or the pursuit of a legitimate interest) as required under the GDPR or any other applicable legislation.

- Data minimisation and storage limitation

AccorInvest will only collect Personal Data that is adequate, relevant and not excessive, having regard to the purposes for which it is processed as described in Section IV.

The Personal Data Processed is kept only for the time required for the purposes described in Section IV and the rules that apply to the storage and archiving of data.

- Data security

AccorInvest protects Personal Data from destruction, loss, tampering, disclosure or unauthorised use.

Accordingly, technical and organisational measures such as the management of access rights and computer file security (e.g. passwords, encryption) are implemented to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the Personal Data.

V. Data retention

The Personal Data Processed is retained by the AccorInvest Entity in accordance with the retention obligations stipulated by applicable legal and regulatory provisions. In the absence of such legal and regulatory provisions, the Personal Data may be retained for the period necessary for the purposes for which it was Processed.

We may further retain the Personal Data for legal purposes and to protect AccorInvest's rights and interests until the end of the retention period as prescribed by applicable laws.

After the retention period the Personal Data will either be destroyed or anonymised. The anonymisation of the Personal Data means that it can no longer be associated with the Employees.

VI. Data recipients and transfers

AccorInvest may transfer Personal Data internally or externally to Recipients if this is necessary to achieve the purposes specified in Section IV.

The Personal Data is shared with AccorInvest's personnel authorized to receive it, and may also be transferred to external Recipients such as:

- suppliers - acting as a data processor - that need the Personal Data to provide services to AccorInvest (e.g. IT service providers, payroll providers, pension administration, benefits provision and administration, recruiters, training companies, hotel managers and the administrators, nominees, registrars and trustees of any share plan operated by an AccorInvest Entity);
- partners using the data to conduct analyses or surveys (e.g. hotel managers in connection with a remuneration scheme, third-party organisations conducting remuneration surveys);
- government and judicial authorities, if required by law or in connection with a criminal investigation or proceedings and in accordance with local regulations;
- external advisers (such as lawyers) to assert its rights and defend itself in legal proceedings;
- third-party companies involved in transactions involving the Group's assets (e.g. assets purchasers, notary).

AccorInvest takes appropriate steps to ensure that Personal Data is protected when sharing it with staff or third-party Recipients. In all cases, the transferred data is limited to what is strictly necessary for the purposes for which it is being transferred.

If Personal Data is sent to countries that do not afford the same level of protection as the country in which the Personal Data was collected, AccorInvest will ensure that appropriate safeguards are implemented to manage this transfer (for example through standard contractual clauses or Binding Corporate Rules).

VII. Rights of Employees

As data subjects, Employees are entitled to exercise the rights set out in the GDPR and domestic data protection legislation.

The GDPR provides that data subjects have, subject to certain conditions and limits, a right of access, to rectify and erase their Personal Data collected by an AccorInvest Entity. Data subjects also have the right to data portability, to request its restriction or to object to the Processing of their Personal Data. In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, Processing and transfer of your Personal Data for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific Processing at any time.

These rights can be exercised by sending either:

1. An email to one of the following:
